

Dear Mr. Rector,

Ladies and gentlemen,

I am pleased to offer my warmest congratulations to your Academy to celebrate its 70th anniversary. I would like to wish you further development in the frame of your comprehensive activity in the area of dissemination of knowledge, research and staff training. I believe that your involvement in the development of the Academy, your achievements in providing high-level education, as well as in training of enlightened citizens of democratic states who actively promote their own lifelong development will allow further achievement of results corresponding to the highest standards of education.

Dear Mr Rector, the academic and didactic staff, I wish you further academic achievements and all the success in your professional and personal life.

Respectfully,

dr Katarzyna Gajewska
